Other important items of information:

- Chili Cook Off is Feb. 21 – This event is in need of volunteers and donations. Anyone that can help with either can contact Ellen Evensen. Currently there are 13 booths are registered, room for 7 more. More ministry teams/church groups/leadership involved are encouraged to sign sponsor a booth.
- Auction Extravaganza is Feb. 21 – There will be a silent auction, live auction, raffle. Donations will be accepted through Thursday, Feb. 18. Donations can be directed towards Andy Moscinski in the church office.
- Mo discussed his attendance in the recent ELCA Youth Workers Conference in Charlotte, North Carolina. The event was very educational and he had an opportunity to network and learn from leaders in the ELCA field of youth ministry. Report to be submitted to council.
- Discussion on finalization of intern applications/job descriptions was held. Applications/job descriptions passed and are now available from the Family & Youth Office. Ellen Evensen was thanked for her work on updated job descriptions for interns.
- Discussion was held on the process for interviewing intern candidates. It was decided a team approach would be used again with a cross+generational emphasis for making up the team of five interviewers. The possible dates for interviewing will be held March 6-7, March 13-14, and an alternative date of April 3.
