

From Generation to Generation

The letter to Romans reminds us that “we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us.” (Romans 12:6)
What are your own unique gifts of time, talent and treasure that bring you joy in serving and benefit our lives together at FELC?

Join us this fall as we give thanks for God’s blessings to us From Generation to Generation.

October 25

On Reformation Sunday, spirited hymns and songs were our vehicle for praise as we Continue in God’s Word from Generation to Generation.

November 1

On All Saints Day, We Rejoice in God’s Salvation as we give thanks for the generations of saints who have nurtured the faith. The Gospel Praise Ensemble from Augsburg College will share their joyful music at the North Site, and a special All Saints litany with handbells at the Downtown Site will help us remember the saints among us.

November 8

As we lift up the many ministries and volunteers in our congregation, We Serve with all Our Hearts from Generation to Generation. What ministries can become a vehicle for your time and talents in the coming year?

November 15

In the gospel text for this day, we hear of the poor widow who gave everything she had – a wonderful example of what it means to Give with Humble Hearts from Generation to Generation. We’ll dedicate our 2010 commitment cards and Time and Talent Sheets to the glory of God and celebrate with a special coffee hour.

From Sunday, Oct. 25 through Sunday, Nov. 15, joyfully place your completed Time & Talent Form and From Generation to Generation Commitment Card in the offering plate during Sunday or Wednesday worship, or deliver it to the church office. For your convenience, a 2010 Time and Talent Form and Commitment Card are included in this newsletter. Let us rejoice in our God-given gifts From Generation to Generation!

You may also make your 2010 contribution at www.felc.com by following the “Online Giving” link on the left side of the home page. Information about the Simply Giving automated giving program is also available on the homepage of www.felc.com or by contacting the church office.
