Announcements

Week of July 29, 2018

Love Jesus. Live your call.

First English is committed to becoming a more welcoming, inclusive congregation.

Sunday at FELC

Thank you Pastor Stoneburner

Thank you to Pastor Ty Stoneburner for helping us out during Pastor Mary's sabbatical. Pastor Stoneburner is a husband to Lynette, father to Caittlyn, and grandfather to Charles. He served Immanuel Lutheran of Cicero for nearly 14 years. He now works at Muehl-Boettcher Funeral Home in Seymour. He looks forward to his time with the members of First English this summer.

Art at the Park Parking Lot Fundraiser

The Annual Art at the Park event sponsored by the Trout Museum of Art is today! Please consider attending this traditional Fox Cities event and supporting our youth by parking at the Downtown Site. We will be parking cars from 8:30 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at a cost of $5 per car. Hope to see you!

Thank You Dale

The staff and congregation of First English wishes to extend heartfelt thanks to Dale Rude for his service to FELC. Dale is stepping away from his role as Facility Tech. We will miss his kind smile, his "can do" attitude and willingness to always lend a hand. His dedication to his church family and personal integrity are gifts to us all. When you see Dale in worship or at Bible Study, please extend a warm and sincere word of thanks.

Looking Ahead

50+ BBQ!

Join the 50+ group for their annual BBQ, along with their special guests, the summer interns! The BBQ is on Thursday, Aug. 2 at noon in the Downtown Site Fellowship Hall. The usual picnic fare will be served. A freewill offering will be taken. please sign up on the sheet located on the Kiosk in the Gathering Area; it is very helpful in meal planning. Hope to see you there!

Benefit Concert

The summer interns are hosting a concert to benefit The Center for Suicide Awareness on Sunday, Aug. 5 from 7-8:30 p.m. in the Downtown Site Seeds of Grace Learning Garden. There will be speakers from the Center, and musical performances by several interns as well as special musical guests. Please plan to attend!

FELC Staff Retreat

The staff of First English will be attending the Global Leadership Summit being held on Aug. 9 and 10 at Pathways Church in Appleton. This leadership and education summit is simulcast across the country and led by a world-class faculty. We are thankful for a grant which enabled attendance. Due to this event, the church office will be closed on Aug. 9 and 10.

Shepherds Needed

Super news! The majority of our Sunday School and Confirmation leaders are returning in the fall. However, we have a few vacancies to fill. Currently we need a teacher(s) for the grades 1 & 2 classroom at the Downtown Site and teachers for the age 3 and grades 3 & 4 classrooms at the North Site. In addition, we are looking for a Confirmation small group leader to walk with a class that is finishing their final year in the program and possibly a large group leader. These are important roles that have a high level of priority to fill prior to the teacher/leader orientation meetings beginning Aug. 29. Please contact Kirsten Owens, Faith Formation Coordinator, at kowens@felc.com or (920)733-2303 if you are thinking about or feeling the call to shepherd our FELC students!

Coffee Project Sunday

When you are drinking a cup of fairly traded coffee from Equal Exchange, you are supporting one, two or three small scale farmers on the other side of the world so that they can have a better life and education for their children. When farmers can't get a fair price for their coffee, it has a ripple effect in their communities, their country and even the world. The simple act of choosing fairly traded coffee can make an enormous difference. First English will be selling Fairly Traded Coffee, Tea and Hot Cocoa on Sunday, Aug. 5. The simple pleasure of a cup of coffee can be a vital source of income for thousands of small farmers and their families in some of the poorest countries in the world.

Thank You: Fox River Chamber Fest

Thanks to all of you who volunteered, attended or supported the 2018 Fox River Chamber Fest at First English. Hosted by The Arthur Krempin School of Music & Art, the Fest was a great success with over 500 people from the Fox Cities community in attendance for last week's performances. We sincerely appreciate your enthusiasm and support, and look forward to this annual event returning to FELC again next July.

Information Gathering Sessions

We're very fortunate to have Pastor Jeff and Pastor Mary at First English, and deeply grateful for their ministry to our congregation. We look forward to their continued leadership here for several more years to come. At the same time, given their eventual retirements in 4-5 years, we're proactively beginning to consider an inevitable transition in FELC leadership. Thanks to those of you who attended and participated in the Information Gathering Sessions this past week. The thoughts you shared with Council members at this very early stage will help to form a plan and path forward for our congregation when it's appropriate. Thank you.

What's Important Now - Weekly Intern News... It's a WIN WIN!

July 29, 2018

From the Desk of Summer Intern Reilly March

As I look at the calendar, I cannot believe how fast the summer is going. This summer I have the privilege of working alongside a team of incredible interns as one of the High School and Middle School Interns. This team of interns manages to turn even the most boring of activities, like weeding and dusting, into an adventure of friendship and laughter. Some of my favorite programs this summer, however, have been reFUEL and Middle School Youth Group that allow the interns to form relationships with the church youth and see connections and friendships blossom among the group of students.

Through this position, I have been blessed to get to know the amazing, mature, and compassionate middle schoolers and high schoolers that call this church home. As the summer continues to move along, I look forward to our annual trip to Noah's Ark Waterpark on Aug. 13. I invite all middle schoolers and high schoolers to sign up and join us, and I invite the congregation to pray for a safe and fun trip for this great bunch of young adults. Thank you again for welcoming me as a summer intern at First English. This opportunity has provided me with innumerable blessings!

-Reilly March

Middle School Youth Group

Middle School Youth Group is a great way to become involved with the church community, through both outreach and fellowship. Tuesday July 31, we invite students grades 6-8 to attend a Timber Rattlers game at Fox Cities Stadium. The game starts at 7 p.m. and we will meet outside the stadium at 6:50 p.m. Tickets cost $8, and we suggest you bring a blanket or cushion on which to sit.

Benefit Concert

Mark your calendars now for the 2018 summer intern benefit concert! We will be hosting a concert to benefit The Center for Suicide Awareness. The benefit concert will take place in the Seeds Of Grace Learning Garden on Aug. 5 at 7 p.m. with performances by interns, musical guests, and speakers from the Center.

Students grades 9-12 are welcome to join us for reFUEL following the Intern-led Worship services on Wednesday nights at the North Site.

Youth News

July 29, 2018

Vacation Bible School

Vacation Bible School is coming the week of Aug. 6! Get ready for a fun week full of songs, arts and crafts, fun games and high-energy activities, and, of course, great Bible study. Kids aged 3 through grade 6 are encouraged to join us Monday-Thursday from 9 a.m. - noon for our excellent final week of elementary summer programming.

Noah's Ark Trip

Middle and high schoolers are invited to this annual fun in the sun bus trip to Noah's Ark water park! We'll leave at 8 a.m. on Monday, Aug. 13. The trip costs $30, which covers transportation, a park ticket, and a hot dog lunch. Sign up at www.felc.com/summer.

Wednesday Night Worship

Join the Summer Interns each Wednesday evening through Aug. 9 for Wednesday Worship at 6:15 p.m. at the North Site. This intern-led, Spirit-filled service of music, message and communion is a great alternative or addition to Sunday. These worship services will share their own unique messages and not repeat the previous Sunday's sermons. Invite a friend or neighbor and take advantage of this worship opportunity.

Coffee and Convo

Enjoy deep conversations along with your favorite coffee beverage with summer interns Jack and Reilly. All high school youth are welcome to meet on Tuesdays from 9-10:30 a.m. at the College Ave. Copper Rock. Let this activity be the sweetener in your summer!

BWW

The summer interns will not be meeting for lunch at Buffalo Wild Wings on Aug. 2. Jack and Reilly will resume the weekly lunch for high school students Thursday, Aug. 9. See you next week!

FELC DS Engage Page: Pentecost 10, July 29, 2018

John 6:1-21 After this Jesus went to the other side of the Sea of Galilee, also called the Sea of Tiberias. A large crowd kept following him, because they saw the signs that he was doing for the sick. Jesus went up the mountain and sat down there with his disciples. Now the Passover, the festival of the Jews, was near. When he looked up & saw a large crowd coming toward him, Jesus said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread for these people to eat?" He said this to test him, for he himself knew what he was going to do. Philip answered him, "Six months' wages would not buy enough bread for each of them to get a little." One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him, "There is a boy here who has 5 barley loaves & 2 fish. But what are they among so many people?" Jesus said, "Make the people sit down." Now there was a great deal of grass in the place; so they sat down, about 5 thousand in all. Then Jesus took the loaves, and when he had given thanks, he distributed them to those who were seated; so also the fish, as much as they wanted. When they were satisfied, he told his disciples, "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." So they gathered them up, and from the fragments of the 5 barley loaves, left by those who had eaten, they filled 12 baskets. When the people saw the sign that he had done, they began to say, "This is indeed the prophet who is to come into the world." When Jesus realized that they were about to come and take him by force to make him king, he withdrew again to the mountain by himself. When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea, got into a boat, & started across the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, & Jesus had not yet come to them. The sea became rough because a strong wind was blowing. When they had rowed about 3 or 4 miles, they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near the boat, and they were terrified. But he said to them, "It is I; do not be afraid." Then they wanted to take him into the boat, and immediately the boat reached the land toward which they were going.

Sun, July 29: Family Project: Most sandwich breads have about 22 slices per loaf. For the 5000 sandwiches necessary for this crowd we'd need 455 loaves of bread. Do a grocery store run to find out how much that would cost today. Praise God for miraculous provision.

Mon, July 30: Jesus asks the disciples to "Gather up the fragments left over, so that nothing may be lost." Jesus was never wasteful. And the attitude that he has toward bread is also the attitude he has toward people. He asks his disciples to go out searching for anyone the world overlooks –the leftovers, –so that no one may be lost.

Tues, July 31: Why are these disciples always going out in storms? Shouldn't they be able to read the weather better since some of them made a living by the sea? It's actually just like us. No matter how we prepare, we can be caught unaware by the storms of life. Praise God that Jesus comes to us in the midst of all our storms.

Wed, Aug 1, Exodus 16:2-4 9-15, Madi Howard The story of the manna and quail has always stood out to me by reminding me that God will always provide us with exactly what we need, even if our idea of what we need is completely different. In many ways, the Israelites' journey through the desert can be compared to working as an intern at FELC; last summer, I doubted that I would have the skills to successfully plan and rehearse the music for Wednesday Night Worship every week. And again this summer, I have doubted my ability to entertain a bunch of kiddos all day at KidsCLUB. But I know that, despite my self-doubt, God gave me (and will continue to give me) exactly what I need.

Thursday Aug. 2, Psalm 78:23-29, Emma Snyder This passage speaks to me on an artistic level. Currently I am earning a degree in Film Production. There is a special part within this writing ' He rained meat down on them like dust, birds like sand on the seashore'. I compare this to filmmaking. Taking words from paper and turning it into a vision on screen. What's cool about this passage is it does that for us within our minds. We look at this writing and imagine food being rained down upon these starving people like dust and sand on the beach. In this passage we acknowledge the beauty of God's wonders and his graciousness of answering our prayers in a beautiful and poetic manner.

Fri, Aug. 3, Ephesians 4:1-16, Reilly March Growing up, I was taught an acronym that represented the idea of grace. We learned 'G.R.A.C.E'. or "God's riches at Christ's expense" as a way to remember how Jesus' sacrifice leads us to eternal life and forgiveness. Similarly, in this passage, Paul reminds us that "In [Christ] we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace" (Ephesians 1:7). Jesus took our sins and died on the cross for us so that we could be enveloped in God's eternal mercy and love. Jesus shouldered the burden of our sins so that we may be forgiven and continue to give glory to God.

Sat, Aug. 4, John 6:24-35, Heidi Schreiner Oh how different our daily lives would be if our spiritual needs were as physically noticeable as our hunger needs were. It's so obvious when I can feel my own "hanger" (hungry+anger) setting in. However, it's only after a moment of frustration or an internal explosion of impatience or selfishness that I sense that my spiritual needs are not being fed. This passage reminds us of the importance of getting our daily caloric intake of Jesus. Spiritual hunger is a hunger that nothing physical will ever fill. Seek Christ and you will be eternally fed.

FELC NS Engage Page: Pentecost 11, July 29, 2018

John 6:24-35 So when the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they themselves got into the boats and went to Capernaum looking for Jesus. When they found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?" Jesus answered them, "Very truly, I tell you, you are looking for me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate your fill of the loaves. Do not work for the food that perishes, but for the food that endures for eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For it is on him that God the Father has set his seal." Then they said to him, "What must we do to perform the works of God?" Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent." So they said to him, "What sign are you going to give us then, so that we may see it and believe you? What work are you performing? Our ancestors ate the manna in the wilderness; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven to eat.'" Then Jesus said to them, "Very truly, I tell you, it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is that which I come down from heaven and gives life to the world." They said to him, "Sir, give us this bread always." Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. Whoever comes to me will never be hungry, and whoever believes in me will never be thirsty."

Sun, Jul. 29: Family Project: Bake some bread! Whether using store bought dough or your own, pay attention to the process of making bread. What does it need to rise? What do we need to grow in our faith? The warmth of community, the yeast of the Holy Spirit, the sweet food of scripture? Come up with as many analogies as you can. Jesus, the Bread of Life, is the one essential. As you eat your bread, remember that Jesus feeds us true love and forgiveness.

Mon, Jul. 30: By tracing the word "work" through this passage, we can see that Jesus and the crowds are speaking on different levels. Jesus teaches them not to work for an earthly bread that perishes, but to receive the work that God has done in the gift of believing in Jesus. The crowd wants to make it about acts that they can perform to see miraculous signs. Jesus comes with the free gift of eternal life.

Tues, Jul. 31: John speaks even through subtle changes in verb tenses. He says, "it was not Moses who gave you the bread from heaven, but it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven." God's provision was not dependent on the person of Moses –a prophet long dead. God provided in the past, and continues to provide in the present through the bread from heaven, Jesus Christ.

Wed., Aug. 1, 2 Kings 4:42-44, Carolyn Klemp Being provided for is one of the best feelings in the world. Not having to worry about where your next meal is coming from or having clean water. We tend to take for granted the things we have, and forget that God provides for us too. The things God provides are not always immediately noticed, and sometimes we doubt his ability. He shows us consistently that he can and will amaze us in what and how he provides for us. As we see in this and many other biblical passages, he always provides. So today and every day, look at all you have and have been given, and thank God for all he has and will provide for you.

Thurs., Aug. 2, Psalm 145:10-18, Carmen Danz We've heard it time and time again how the Lord has a plan for us, but it's our job to accept His Presence and guidance in times of need. It's easy to acknowledge His guidance when life deals you a good hand, but when things get a little rough, we tend to push God away. I say this not to make anyone feel called out because trust me, we all do it. I recently had a period of time where I needed God's help in making a decision to go back to college or not, but pushed Him away because I was too embarrassed and too prideful to cry out for help. I was convinced I knew myself well enough to get out of a low period in my life by myself. I was wrong. We need to accept that we need help and we shouldn't be ashamed to ask for it. My parents have been very clear about explaining how asking for help makes us stronger and not weaker. I encourage you to look within yourselves and ask if you need God's help because it will only make you stronger.

Fri., Aug. 3, Ephesians 3: 14-21, Zach Hanson We were all made in Christ's image which grants us the special opportunity to look to him for the strength and guidance necessary to grow in our faith. As Christians we can find strength and comfort through God's love. He became a role model in showing the proper way to love one another unconditionally when he sacrificed his only son, Jesus. As God has shown, we can mold ourselves to become a "tree" of love which has its roots in God's love. His love gives us the necessary strength to grow large in our faith and enables us to share his love with all the plants and creatures around us.

Sat., Aug. 4, John 6:1-21 (NRSV), Jack Kent Many of us are familiar with the story of Jesus feeding the 5,000, but I would recommend reading the story one more time. I encountered a verse I have never read before. After Jesus fed the 5,000, he retreated up the mountain to avoid those gathered who were preparing to declare him king (John 6:15). This verse from John reminds me of Matthew 6:5-6 which calls out the hypocrites for praying, not for God, but for their own egos. The gospels frequently depict Jesus' humility, but the lengths to which he would go to keep God in the spotlight were lost on me. Now I'm not telling you to stop showing your faith in public, but ask yourself what your intentions are when you act in the name of God. Are you acting like Jesus, willing to run up a mountain in order to preserve God's message, or are you acting like the hypocrites, doing good solely to inflate your own ego?
