Thank you Pastor Harms

Thank you to Pastor Clarence Harms for helping us out during Pastor Mary's sabbatical. Pastor Harms was born in Geneva, New York, where his father was stationed with the U.S. Navy in WW II. He was raised in Orange County, California, where he raised pigs, sheep, chickens, and rabbits as 4-H projects. He graduated from Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, and served congregations in Nebraska and Wisconsin. In retirement, he and Linda enjoy their hobby of pursuing and playing Euro-style strategy board games, such as Catan, Power Grid, and Ticket to Ride. They have been teaching volunteers for Mayfair Games at gaming conventions all over the U. S.

Submit "Can't Serve" Dates for Worship Volunteering

While we need fewer worship volunteers during the summer, we encounter more "can't serve" dates within our volunteer families as they are enjoying additional travel opportunities that summer brings. A worship schedule is being created for July 2 - Sept. 30. To assist with scheduling, please review your personal calendars and record within MSP any dates you are unavailable to serve. The deadline to record unavailable dates is today. If you need any assistance with updating your 'can't serve' dates, please contact Kathy Larson (klarson@felc.com or 733-2303). Thank you.

What's Important Now - Weekly Intern News... It's a WIN WIN!

June 10, 2018

From the Desk of Summer Intern Ethan Uslabar

Hello First English, my name is Ethan Uslabar. I'm studying journalism at the University of Wisconsin - Oshkosh, and I will be fulfilling the role of the communications intern this summer. My role in the church this summer outside of group activities will be to communicate church events on platforms such as the Facebook pages (First English Lutheran Church and FELC Summer Intern Ministry) and the church website (www.felc.com).

Executed well, this will allow the community to hear about First English and our mission, engage with us, as well as showcase the amazing programs we will be putting on, such as Day Camp, KidsCLUB, reFUEL, and many more. I have a passion for creating visuals, especially photography, and hope to be able to use these gifts to share and spread God's word as my fellow interns and I get started this summer.

-Ethan Uslabar

It's an energetic, fun and safe environment for kids age 5-6 from the neighborhood, the community, and the congregation to participate in a wide range of activities. Elementary kids will have the opportunity to play a variety of fun games, make cool arts and crafts and garden projects. Every week we participate in Bookin' and Cookin', which combines a story and the opportunity to make a healthy snack. Kids are able to come any or all of the afternoons. Bring your own lunch and join us at 11:30 a.m. or join us at 12:15 p.m. for opening worship. Hope to see you there!

FELC DS Engage Page: Pentecost 3, June 10, 2018

Mark 3:20-35 And the crowd came together again, so that they could not even eat. When his family heard it, they went out to restrain him, for people were saying, "He has gone out of his mind." And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebul, and by the ruler of the demons he casts out demons." And he called them to him, and spoke to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan? If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand. And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand. And if Satan has risen up against himself & is divided, he cannot stand, but his end has come. But no one can enter a strong man's house and plunder his property without first tying up the strong man; then indeed the house can be plundered. "Truly I tell you, people will be forgiven for their sins & whatever blasphemies they utter; but whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin" -- for they had said, "He has an unclean spirit." Then his mother & his brothers came; & standing outside, they sent to him and called him. A crowd was sitting around him; and they said to him, "Your mother and your brothers and sisters are outside, asking for you." And he replied, "Who are my mother and my brothers?" And looking at those who sat around him, he said, "Here are my mother and my brothers! Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother."

Sun, June 10: Family Project: "If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand." Make teams and try to do some task in the house or yard or at the beach. See what happens when you work together and what happens when you are divided against one another. What does it mean to do the will of God? Pick one thing to do this week that will make it clear you are doing God's will.

Mon, June 11: Perhaps the extraordinary birth events should have prepared Mary, but this passage makes it clear that the entire family was on edge from the rock star status that Jesus had achieved. In a world where too much attention could be very dangerous, they were anxious for him to act a bit more conventionally. Pray for wisdom that you recognize God's work even when it is strange or scary.

Tues, June 12: How do we understand the verse, "whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit can never have forgiveness"? People have been caught in it's web, fearful that they have committed the "unforgivable" sin. Conventional wisdom is that if you are worried about it, you haven't committed it. Focus your heart instead on Jesus' great love shown on the cross, and live in God's amazing grace.

Wed, June 13, Ezek.17:22-24, Rev. Chris Quello "I the Lord, have spoken. I will do what I have said I would do." 17:24c Prophets like Ezekiel have been granted wondrous authority to speak for the Lord, their God. In today's reading, the prophet foretells an exciting drama about to unfold. The Lord will take the top of a tall cedar and break off a tender sprout. This tender shoot will grow branches and will itself become a magnificent cedar. Ezekiel declares an image of hope for a trodden down people. The God they worship and adore will not forget them. They will experience newness of being and in this new reality they will live lives that in turn will become a source of strength for others around them. This promise is certainly more than just words. It will happen because the prophetic word of Ezekiel declares it to be so. The Lord has spoken and will accomplish what God said God would do.

Thurs, June 14, Psalm 92:1-4, 12-15, Kirsten Owens In 1965 there was a wonderful song entitled, "How Sweet It Is To Be Loved By You", smoothly sung by Motown singer, Marvin Gaye. It's a love song rooted not in romantic idealism but rather profound gratitude. The lyrics have a joyful lilt while pouring out thanks to the beloved for giving shelter, being there for the ups and downs, and providing sunshine for his days. As Marvin sings "It's like sugar in my soul." In Psalm 92:1-4 we see a similar song of thanks sung to God for His love and faithfulness. Not only is this love like "sugar in my soul" it is also like the sun and soil that nourish a tree, a tree that will grow strong and flourish in faith (Ps. 92:12-15). We often pray to God when we are in the darkness of struggle but don't forget to turn up the volume and sing that song of praise and thanksgiving. Gratitude is a sweet song for growth in Christ.

Fri, Jun 15, 2 Cor. 5:6-17, Rev Chris Quello I am writing this devotion on Maudy Thursday as the Church begins the recall of Christ's death & resurrection. Paul is recalling the drama: Christ died SO THAT 1.) those who live should no longer live for themselves, 2.) but for him who died...for their sake.

Devoting the rest of one's life in memory of one who has died happens with regularity. Some will remember the ministry established by the Olson's in memory of their son Tim who gave his life while serving the church in the Central African Republic. Devoting the rest of one's life to Christ who died

Sat, June 16, Mark 4:26-34, Kirsten Owens Gardeners can't afford to be hopeless. Each spring they spread seeds, dig depressions in deep, rich soil & enter into this ancient promise – when the eye may see only flat, infertile ground there is a seed unfolding into a tender sprout. Only through hope and faith can we anticipate that the small shoot will someday be waist high and hanging heavy with fruit. Sometimes when the sun scorches the earth, leaves grow yellow with too much water, or birds pluck the seed spread we feel defeated and wonder whether it's worth the effort. Yet the parables of the growing seed and the mustard seed assure us that even when all of our devoted attention seems to fall short God is still doing the miraculous work of growth behind the scenes.

FELC NS Engage Page: Pentecost 2, June 10, 2018

Mark 2:23 -3:6 One sabbath he was going through the grainfields; and as they made their way his disciples began to pluck heads of grain. The Pharisees said to him, "Look, why are they doing what is not lawful on the sabbath?" And he said to them, "Have you never read what David did when he and his companions were hungry and in need of food? He entered the house of God, when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the bread of the Presence, which it is not lawful for any but the priests to eat, and he gave some to his companions." Then he said to them, "The sabbath was made for humankind, and not humankind for the sabbath; so the Son of Man is lord even of the sabbath." Again he entered the synagogue, and a man was there who had a withered hand. They watched him to see whether he would cure him on the sabbath, so that they might accuse him. And he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Come forward." Then he said to them, "Is it lawful to do good or to do harm on the sabbath, to save life or to kill?" But they were silent. He looked around at them with anger; he was grieved at their hardness of heart and said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored. The Pharisees went out and immediately conspired with the Herodians against him, how to destroy him.

Sun, June 10: Family Project: The word sabbath means to cease and is related to God's day of rest after the six days of creation. It was a day when work stopped. In a day when many no longer practice taking a day rest, it's good to remember that the Sabbath is a gift to humanity. What does Sabbath mean to you? Consider having a day of Sabbath rest from social media or errands. How can Sabbath renew your heart to experience God's grace?

Mon, Jun. 11: The Pharisees conspired with the Herodians about how to destroy Jesus. It is unknown who the Herodians were, but it is clear that Mark sees this alliance between them and the Pharisees as shameful. When we are judging whether or not our desires are Godly, perhaps we need to look at the alliances we must make to support our viewpoint. If we must feel ashamed of those who share our stance, perhaps God is asking us to have a change of heart.

Tues, June 12: It shows an extraordinary coldness to be able to react to someone being healed with anything but joy. But since the Pharisees are already watching to see if Jesus will break the Sabbath, they perversely say this act of compassion is against God's law. Jesus reminds them of the purpose of the law—to save life. It can be easy for us to get caught up in rules, but before we judge, we must ask God to give us wisdom and love so our judgments bring life.

Wed., June 13, Job 38:1-11, Cindy Cieslik Poor Job! After having a variety of miseries visited upon him and hearing his friends tell him that it must be his fault, he finally gets to speak to God. As so often happens in our human experience, the answer God gives doesn't seem to align with the question we ask. Our essential question. "Why do bad things happen to good people?" is one everyone wrestles with. Perhaps the fact that God seems to go off topic is his way of telling us that some things will always be beyond human control. God might be reminding us that He, the Creator, will always be with us as we struggle through the hard times.

Thurs. June 14, Psalm 107:1-3, 23-32, Spencer Jordan Since I graduated from high school I have lived in 3 different states & 2 different countries. Whether we move about in seeming excess, or through the other issues of life which pull at us, we can feel we are in the throws of chaotic tempests. "He made the storm be still." God doesn't just still your storms, he changes your ecosystem; He brings you to your desired haven—a habitat fostered by His unyielding love. We are adopted into His family of such wondrous love. Let us live loved in every circumstance, in every relationship unto His glory.

Fri., June 15, 2 Cor. 6:1-13, Cindy Cieslik It is a rare person who at some point has not needed to mend a relationship. In 2 Corinthians Paul is choosing his words very carefully because Corinth at that time is hosting teachers who are criticizing him. His loving relationship with the church he founded is being tested by the words of others seeking to usurp his power. Disagreement, jealousy, gossip, dishonesty, and misunderstanding are alive and well in families, friendships and churches today. We can benefit from Paul's reminders to the Corinthians about the power of God's reconciliation and the importance of approaching each other with a heart that is wide open.

Sat, June 16, Mark 4:35-41, Spencer Jordan Several weeks ago I got an email showing my phone payment was declined. Stressors test our foundations. We think we know how things might go with God because we get used to a certain pattern. Slowly our trust can shift from Him to patterns and expectations. We live in a time where everything is being shaken politically, economically, and culturally. The boats we have built for past and present circumstances are tested and will sink if our faith is in them. In fear of perishing, amidst gale and wave, Jesus announces to us "a dead calm". In baptism, you have died to the world and its frantic ways. Through our baptismal promises we can enter the center of the whirl where the calm and peace of God is ever advancing.
